2. No Direct, aimed fire will take place within 40 yards. ELEVATE. No unscripted hand-to-hand combat. Three-banded weapons only for infantry troops. 70 grains maximum charge.
3. All weapons will be inspected before each battle scenario. No uninspected weapon (e.g. late arrivals) will be permitted on the field. No civilian re-enactors may carry firearms.
4. All officers must be familiar with the safety protocols of other branches, e.g. artillery signals.
5. No spectators shall be allowed to fire any weapon under any circumstances. While you may demonstrate the use and function of your weapon, you will be asked to leave if you hand a loaded gun to a spectator. No Civilian Re-enactors may carry firearms.

Camping:

6. No visible anachronisms are permitted on any person or in any camp. This will include, but is not limited to, modern eyewear and footwear, coolers, cell phones, wristwatches, "logo" sportswear, cars in camp and other items inappropriate to the impression. The key considerations are our responsibility to the public and our respect for each other.
7. Camps are open for set-up at noon on Friday. The camps shall be in period from 9 o'clock a.m. on Saturday through 4 o'clock p.m. on Sunday. This applies to and includes Saturday night after the public is gone. Absolutely no cars in camp at any time during the event.
8. With the provision that civilian wall tents are not allowed on the Federal Green, individual unit practices concerning civilian camping will be accommodated to the extent that space permits. There will be a separate civilian camp available.
9. Lights out and all quiet times shall be adhered to by all participants. All quiet runs to the next morning's reveille.
10. There are no specific provisions for modern camping.
11. Fires must be attended at all times. A fire bucket must be provided for each fire.
12. You must park in the designated re-enactor parking area (commuter lot). Any car left in the upper lot (spectator gate) will be towed.

14. Civilian participation on the battlefield is limited to nurses and designated "ice angels". All scenarios involving civilians shall take place behind the respective lines. Under no circumstances may any civilian be forward of any line of battle. No civilian may be armed.
15. First person impressionists must request approval of the event coordinator before appearing.
16. All units and individuals, including civilians, agree to abide by the orders and directives of the event-authorized command field and staff officers. The chain of command, order of battle and orders of the day will be communicated to units through the appropriate channels.
